Chapter 1 - Newspaper Clippings

Found scattered around the news office level.

Newspaper:

The Daily Pride

Pride Inside

Pride Advocate

Level 1-1

Cat Bakery Vandalized!

Vera Fang

Early this morning another feline-owned business was vandalized. The apparent evidence seemed to suggest anti-cat perpetrators. The windows of the bakery were smashed and the vandals spray-painted feline slurs across the front door. This is the third instance of this kind of vandalism and the K-99 assure the public that they are on the case. More on pg 28.

Level 1-2

Parks No longer Safe at Night

Gordon Fleaman

Parks have long been the meeting place for many packs around the city. During the day our parks offer a splendid outdoor space for which all can run free. Yet as night descends on the city, parks become less serene. Reports increase daily of hooded animals running through the parks looking for prey. Many sources suggest that these animals are strays, but no concrete evidence supports this. More on pg 12.

Level 1-3

Stray Away

Lara Clawft

Are prides and packs dissolving before our eyes? Although still uncommon, the stray "lifestyle" is becoming increasingly more visible. Felines and canines alike are opting to "freelance" rather than be apart of a particular pride or pack. See more on pg 7

Level 1-4

Mayor Growling Something Something with K-99
Tomcat Connors

In light of recent issues, Mayor Growling has increased funding to the K-99 investigation units. She believes that an increased presence of authorities will be beneficial to crime rates. K-99 will now have more active patrols through the streets and parks. Read more on pg 18.

Chapter 2 - Cult Writings

Found inside the pieces of the mask.

Level 2-1

Piece 1
A Prayer to Bastet

From the paws
To the claws
For the jaws
We honor You this night.

From the paws
To the claws
For the jaws
We seek Your thoughts and sight.

From the paws
To the claws
For the jaws
We bring You prey to bite.

Level 2-2

Piece 2
So Above as Below (Mewgnificum in Ordine)

True purity can only be obtained from walking the path of Bastet. Our Mother lays before us the mandates of the heavens, we must follow Her call or we will be as nothing.

Level 2-3

Piece 3

The Old Ways

Felines we once sacred in all eyes. Worshipped in the sun and worshipped under the moon. Felines were leaders of this world because only they could speak the tongue of Bastet. They were blessed by Her and the world was better for it.

Level 2-4

Piece 4

A Blessing from Bastet

May those who prowl, prowl without fear.
May those who hunt, hunt with daring.
May those who rule, rule with care.
I bless you, my children
I bless you with my wisdom, my sense, my power
Take my gifts. Prowl. Hunt. Rule.
